100+ Millennials Who Care Donates Nearly $9,000 to Power Company Kids Club

- Contribution includes $1,000 from Mortgage 1 Anderson Copeland Mortgage Team

Rochester, Mich. December 1, 2019 – 100+ Millennials Who Care (100MWC) is proud to partner with Mortgage 1 Anderson/Copeland to donate to Power Company Kids Club (PCKC). Members of 100MWC presented Aaron Robinson and Hailey Noonan with a check for $8,800 at Power Company Kids Club in Pontiac.

In addition to the check presentation, members of the group were able to take a tour, join their Saturday workshop and learn more about the organization. PCKC focuses on the emotional, physical, social and spiritual well-being of kids in inner cities through weekly training and mentoring in collaboration with parents, churches, schools and civic leaders.

“I couldn’t think of a better way to spend my Saturday” said Steering Committee Member Ramy Sulaiman. “The children’s joy filled the room as they filled the gym.”

100+ Millennials who care will host their next meeting on Tuesday, January 28, 2020 at The Dow located inside Dick O’Dows in Birmingham. Representatives from Power Company Kids Club will be in attendance to recap where the funds were allocated for the rest of the members. Three new charities will be nominated and one will be chosen to receive the next donation.
