100+ Millennials Who Care Donates Nearly $9,000 to Grace Centers of Hope

- Contribution includes $1,000 from United Wholesale Mortgage
- Grace Centers of Hope (Pontiac, MI) receives donation as well as volunteers from 100MWC

Rochester, Mich. March 4, 2019 – 100+ Millennials Who Care (100MWC) is proud to partner with United Wholesale Mortgage to donate to Grace Centers of Hope. This is the organization's second contribution in less than 6 months since beginning in September 2018. Members of 100MWC presented Olivia Jones, volunteer coordinator for Grace Centers of Hope and member with the check at the Grace Centers of Hope Headquarters Thursday, February 28.

In addition to the check presentation, members of the group were able to take a tour and learn more about the organization. "This donation meant a lot for us, Grace Centers of Hope is a truly wonderful organization", said founder Michelle Denno. "With the extreme negative temperatures, we have had this winter and addiction gripping our nation, the Center has been working overtime to accommodate additional residents, which means incurring additional costs". "We were very excited to be able to help offset some of those costs."

The group is planning a volunteer session for their members to experience the magic of the Center for a day. Members will be serving the center in different capacities and will have the opportunity to interact with residents and members of the Grace Centers of Hope staff.

100+ Millennials who care will host their next meeting on April 8th at Emagine Theatre in Royal Oak. Grace Centers of Hope will be in attendance to recap where the funds were allocated for the rest of the members. Three new charities will be nominated and one will be chosen to receive the next donation.
